

Journalism

About Journalism at CCSF

Our award-winning program offers opportunities to master the skills needed for careers in the modern media industry, from online news outlets to brand content studios. Faculty and staff are committed to assisting students in completing Certificates of Achievement and Associate of Arts degrees to meet their goals.

Why Choose Our Program

We offer training in beat reporting, investigative reporting, feature writing, copy editing, data and multimedia journalism, photojournalism, and public relations.

- Our program produces publications including the student-run bi-weekly newspaper The Guardsman and semesterly Etc. Magazine.
- Our program provides opportunities for job shadowing, mentorships, internships, and independent study.

Our Vision

EMPOWER students to tell the stories that matter

EQUIP students to reach audiences across barriers

EXPAND students' access to media industry careers

“Everything I learned about radio and newspaper reporting came from City College Journalism.”

— Joe Fitzgerald Rodriguez,
Reporter & Producer, KQED

Degrees

- Journalism AA
- Journalism AA T

Certificates

- Editorial Management and Design
- Data Journalism
- Entrepreneurship and Innovation in Journalism

Your Future

Our graduates have gone on to exciting, well-paying jobs. Their roles include:

- Reporter
- Editor
- Copy Editor
- Photojournalist
- Data Journalist
- Public Relations Specialist
- Visual Journalist
- Publisher
- Freelancer
- Social Media Editor

Take the Next Step!

PROGRAM CONTACT

Chair: Juan Gonzalez
50 Frida Kahlo Way, B615
San Francisco, CA 94112

Phone: (415) 239-3446

Email: jagonzal@ccsf.edu

ccsf.edu/journalism
theguardisman.com

 CCSF Journalism

About CCSF Office of Workforce Development

For upcoming events, contact information, links to online career resources, and information about CCSF's specialized workforce initiatives, visit ccsf.edu/CE.

Above: Detail of Diego Rivera's Pan American Unity mural.

Front cover photos, clockwise from top left: Ekevara Kitpowsong, Suzy Hazelwood

Interior photo, center: Kevin N. Hume

Designed by Laura Hobbs & Megan Fuentes | S20.08 Emerge Studio | CCSF Visual Media Design Department