POLICY MANUAL

Title: STUDENT GOVERNANCE AND STUDENT CONDUCT	Number: 5.02
Legal Authority: California Education Code Sections 70902, 76060 et seq. and 76030 et seq. Title 5, CCR, Section 51023.7	Page: 1 of 1

The College will establish procedures, guidelines, and regulations governing the conduct and rights of students and student organizations which are consistent with the function of the District as an institution providing public higher education and with applicable laws.

Students shall have the opportunity to participate in the development of policy and procedures which have a significant effect on them. The Student Trustee and the Associated Students are the representatives of students to offer opinions and make recommendations to the Board of Trustees and to the administration regarding policies or procedures having a significant effect on students.

The College requires certain standards of conduct of all its students. The College shall adopt rules and regulations governing student behavior along with appropriate penalties for student misconduct consistent with applicable law.
