DISTRICT POLICY MANUAL

Title: PROHIBITION OF SEX DISCRIMINATION UNDER TITLE IX	Number: BP 2.35
Legal Authority: Title IX, Education Amendments of 1972; Title 5 Sections 59320 et seq.; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S. Code Annotated Section 2000e	Related to CCLC BP 3433

The District recognizes that sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and violence, harms all students, undermines students’ physical safety, impedes students’ ability to learn, and can reinforce social inequality throughout a student’s lifetime. The District has a responsibility to make reasonable efforts to respond effectively when the District or its non-confidential employees become aware of conduct that may reasonably constitute discrimination. Confidential employees’ reporting requirements are subject to the procedures outlined in AP 2.35 – Responding to Title IX Sex Discrimination.

All forms of sex discrimination including sex-based harassment are contrary to basic standards of conduct between individuals. State and federal law and this policy prohibit sex discrimination and the District does not tolerate sex discrimination, including sex-based harassment. The District is committed to providing an academic and work environment that respects the dignity of individuals and groups. The District shall be free of sex discrimination.

The District seeks to foster an environment in which all employees, students, applicants for employment, and applicants for admission, and other individuals participating or attempting to participate in the District’s education program or activity feel free to report incidents of sex discrimination in violation of this policy and Title IX, without fear of retaliation or reprisal. Therefore, the District also strictly prohibits retaliation, including peer retaliation, against any person for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX, or because the person has reported possible sex discrimination, made a sex-discrimination complaint, or participated in or refused to participate in any way in the District’s Title IX process. The District will investigate all allegations of Title IX retaliation pursuant to its Title IX procedures (see AP 2.35.). If the District determines that someone has engaged in unlawful retaliation, it will take reasonable steps within its power to stop such conduct and remedy the effects of the retaliation. Individuals who engage in Title IX retaliatory conduct are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination or expulsion.

Any employee, student, applicant for employment, or applicant for admission and other individuals participating or attempting to participate in the District’s education program or activity who believes they have been discriminated or retaliated against in violation of this policy should immediately report such incidents by following the procedures described in AP 2.35 (Responding to Sex Discrimination under Title IX.) The District requires supervisors to report all incidents of harassment and retaliation that come to their attention.

To this end, the Title IX Coordinator shall ensure that the institution undertakes education and training activities to counter sex discrimination and to prevent, minimize, or eliminate any sex discrimination including sex-based harassment that impairs access to equal education opportunity or impacts the terms and conditions of employment.

The Chancellor or designee shall establish procedures that define sex discrimination and sex-based harassment. The Chancellor or designee shall further establish procedures that provide for the investigation and resolution of complaints regarding sex discrimination in violation of this policy, and procedures to resolve complaints of sex discrimination in violation of this policy. State and federal law and this policy prohibit retaliation against any person for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX, or because the person has reported information, made a Complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the Title IX regulations.

The District will publish and publicize this policy and related written procedures (including the procedure for making complaints) to administrators, faculty, staff, students, applicants for employment, and applicants for admission, particularly when they are new to the institution. The District will make this policy and related written procedures (including the procedures for making complaints) available in all administrative offices and will post them on the District's website.

Employees who violate the policy and procedures may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Students who violate this policy and related procedures may be subject to disciplinary measures up to and including expulsion. Volunteers or unpaid interns who violate this policy and related procedures may be subject to disciplinary measure up to and including termination from the volunteer assignment, internship, or other unpaid work experience program.
